PROXY STATEMENT

FOR 2001 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
to be held on May 15, 2001

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of SL Green Realty Corp. (the "Company") for use at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on May 15, 2001, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked (1) to vote upon the election of one Class I director of the Company, (2) to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001, and (3) to consider and act upon any other matters that may properly be brought before the Annual Meeting and at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Card are first being sent to stockholders on or about March 30, 2001. The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 19, 2001 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date"). Only stockholders of record of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 24,687,497 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Holders of Common Stock outstanding as of the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote for each share held by them.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. The vote of a plurality of all of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is necessary for the election of the Class I director. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock cast at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present is required for the ratification of the Company's auditors and the approval of any other matters properly presented at the Annual Meeting for stockholder approval. Under Maryland law, abstentions do not constitute a vote "for" or "against" a matter and will be disregarded in determining "votes cast." Broker "non-votes," or proxies from brokers or nominees indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote such shares on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power, will be treated in the same manner as abstentions.

STOCKHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY ARE REQUESTED TO COMPLETE, SIGN, DATE AND PROMPTLY RETURN THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY CARD IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE-PREPAID ENVELOPE. SHARES REPRESENTED BY A PROPERLY EXECUTED PROXY RECEIVED PRIOR TO THE VOTE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND NOT REVOKED WILL BE VOTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING AS DIRECTED ON THE PROXY. IF A PROPERLY EXECUTED PROXY IS SUBMITTED AND NO INSTRUCTIONS ARE GIVEN, THE PROXY WILL BE VOTED FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEE FOR CLASS I DIRECTOR OF THE COMPANY NAMED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT AND FOR RATIFICATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' SELECTION OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2001. IT IS NOT ANTICIPATED THAT ANY MATTERS OTHER THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THE PROXY STATEMENT WILL BE PRESENTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING. IF OTHER MATTERS ARE PRESENTED, PROXIES WILL BE VOTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE DISCRETION OF THE PROXY HOLDERS.

A stockholder of record may revoke a proxy at any time before it has been exercised by filing a written revocation with the Secretary of the Company at the address of the Company set forth above, by filing a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by appearing in person and voting by ballot at the Annual Meeting. Any stockholder of record as of the Record Date attending the Annual Meeting may vote in person whether or not a proxy has been previously given, but the presence (without further action) of a stockholder at the Annual Meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

The Company's 2000 Annual Report, including financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, has been mailed to stockholders concurrent with the mailing of this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report, however, is not part of the proxy solicitation material.

The following table sets forth the options granted with respect to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 to the Company's Named Executive Officers.

(1) All options are granted at the fair market value of the common stock at the date of grant. These options will vest in five equal annual installments (rounded to the nearest whole share) over five years.

(2) The exercise price for the options was based on the market price of the Common Stock on the date of issuance.

(3) In accordance with the rules of the Commission, these amounts are the hypothetical gains or "option spreads" that would exist for the respective options based on assumed rates of annual compound share price appreciation of 5% and 10% from the date the options were granted over the full option term. No gain to the optionee is possible without an increase in the price of the Common Stock, which would benefit all stockholders.

(4) An annual compound share price appreciation of 5% from the issuance price of the Common Stock yields a price of $41.1296 per share of Common Stock.

(5) An annual compound share price appreciation of 10% from the issuance price of the Common Stock yields a price of $65.5920 per share of Common Stock.

David Nettina exercised 50,000 options with a market value of $237,500 during the year ended December 31, 2000. No other Named Executive Officer exercised options in 2000.

The following table sets forth the value of options held at the end of 2000 by the Company's Named Executive Officers.

EMPLOYMENT AND NONCOMPETITION AGREEMENTS

Benjamin P. Feldman and Gerard T. Nocera each entered into an amended and restated employment and noncompetition agreement, effective as of October 1, 1998. Each agreement has a three-year term, will automatically renew for additional one-year terms unless notice of non-renewal is given and provides for certain severance payments in the event of the Named Executive Officer's death, disability, termination "without cause" or resignation with "good reason" (as such terms are defined in the agreements). Each such employment and noncompetition agreement, subject to certain exceptions, prohibits the Named Executive officer from engaging, directly or indirectly, in any business which engages or attempts to engage, directly or indirectly, in any material acquisition, development, construction, operation, management or leasing of any commercial real estate property within specified portions of the New York City metropolitan area during the one-year period following the executive's termination of employment with the Company. Effective November 3, 2000, Mr. Feldman retired from the Company.

In October 1998, as amended in January 2000, David J. Nettina also entered into a generally similar amended and restated employment and noncompetition agreement with the Company. However, the scheduled expiry of Mr. Nettina's agreement was July 8, 2001 and the agreement would not automatically renew. The agreement, through July 8, 2000, provided for a minimum yearly bonus of $100,000, and the award of $200,000 worth of shares of Common Stock on the annual anniversary dates of his employment. The agreement also provided that if Mr. Nettina voluntarily terminated his employment for a reason other than disability or "good reason" and did not provide at least 12 months advance notice to the Company ("Sufficient Notice"), certain stock options and shares of restricted stock granted to him would be forfeited and/or subject to repurchase by the Company. Subject to certain exceptions, if Mr. Nettina's employment was terminated without Sufficient Notice, the agreement prohibited Mr. Nettina from engaging in certain competitive activities within the New York City metropolitan area during the period beginning on the date of the termination of his employment with the Company and ending on the later of (i) three years from his commencement of such employment and (ii) one year from the termination of such employment. Mr. Nettina's agreement was subject to extension by mutual agreement between Mr. Nettina and the Company.

In addition, pursuant to the terms of Mr. Nettina's prior employment agreement, Mr. Nettina received a loan from the Company on August 14, 1997 to purchase shares of Common Stock issued under the 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (a "Stock Loan"). The principal amount of the Stock Loan was $300,000. On August 14, 1999, the Stock Loan was cancelled and replaced with a new loan from the Company in the principal amount of $100,000 (the "New Loan"). The New Loan was forgiven in accordance with its terms.

In July, 1998, Marc Holliday entered into an employment and noncompetition agreement with the Company. The term of the agreement was five (5) years, which term did not renew automatically. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Holliday received, among other things, (i) an interest free loan from the Company in the amount of $300,000 (which was forgiven in its entirety because Mr. Holliday remained in the employ of the Company after January 10, 2000); (ii) options to purchase 300,000 shares of SL Green Common Stock, which options vest equally over a five year period; and (iii) 150,000 shares of restricted SL Green Common Stock, subject to vesting as described below (the "Holliday Restricted Stock").

The Holliday Restricted Stock vests over five years, with 15% vesting after years one, two and three, 20% vesting after year four and the remaining 35% vesting after year five. However, the vesting of the Holliday Restricted Stock is further conditioned upon the attainment of specified financial performance goals during the vesting period. On the fifth anniversary of Mr. Holliday's employment with SL Green, if Mr. Green is no longer the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company and the total value (such value being the "Total Value") of Mr. Holliday's stock options, the Holliday Restricted Stock and any other shares of restricted stock received by Mr. Holliday as compensation is less than $1,500,000, Mr. Holliday may, at his option, either require SL Green to pay to him the difference between $1,500,000 and the Total Value or retain such options and shares. In the event Mr. Holliday requires the Company to pay such difference, the Company may, at its option, purchase from Mr. Holliday all such shares and options for a purchase price of $1,500,000.

On January 17, 2001, Marc Holliday entered into an amended and restated employment and noncompetition agreement with the Company. The term of the agreement is six (6) years, which shall automatically renew for successive nine (9) month periods unless either Mr. Holliday or the Company serves the required notice under the said agreement.

Finally, in connection with the IPO, Stephen L. Green entered into an employment and noncompetition agreement with the Company that is substantially similar to the amended and restated employment and noncompetition agreements of Messrs. Feldman and Nocera. Mr. Green's agreement has been extended so as to expire on August 30, 2002. Mr. Green's agreement, subject to certain exceptions, prohibits him from engaging in certain competitive activities within the New York metropolitan area during the period beginning on the date of the termination of his employment with the Company and ending on the later of (i) three years from the closing of the IPO and (ii) one year from the termination of such employment.

DEFERRED COMPENSATION AWARDS

In September 2000, the Company's preferred equity interest in 1370 Avenue of the Americas was redeemed and the Company recognized a gain of $8.6 million. As a result of the sale, a $2.8 million compensation award was granted to certain members of management. This award, which will be paid out over a three-year period solely at the option of the Company beginning in 2001, will be disclosed as "other annual" compensation in future proxy statements to the extent payments are made to one of the named executives. No awards were paid in 2000.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following is a report by the Company's Compensation Committee regarding the Company's executive compensation objectives, executive compensation program and the compensation of the Company's chief executive officer.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION OBJECTIVES. The objective of the Company's executive compensation program is to attract, retain and motivate talented executives that will maximize stockholder value. In order to achieve this objective, in addition to annual base salaries, the executive compensation program utilizes a combination of long-term incentives through equity-based compensation and annual incentives through cash bonuses. The program is intended to align the interests of executives with those of the Company's stockholders by linking a portion of executive compensation directly to increases in stockholder value. The Company seeks to provide total compensation to its executive officers which is competitive with total compensation paid by REITs similar to the Company.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE. The Compensation Committee determines compensation for the Company's executive officers and is comprised of three non-employee directors, John H. Alschuler, Jr., Edwin Thomas Burton, III and John S. Levy. Final compensation determinations for each fiscal year generally are made after the end of the fiscal year and after audited financial statements for such year become available. At that time, base salaries for the following fiscal year are set to the extent not already dictated by the terms of existing employment agreements, cash bonuses, if any, will be determined for the past year's performance, and option grants, if any, will generally be made.

The Compensation Committee exercises independent discretion in respect of executive compensation matters. With respect to the compensation of the Named Executive Officers other than Mr. Stephen L. Green, the Compensation Committee reviews the recommendations of Mr. Stephen L. Green.

The following is a discussion of each element of the Company's executive compensation:

ANNUAL BASE SALARY. Base salaries for each of the Named Executive Officers are the subject of the employment agreement between the Company and each such executive as indicated above.

ANNUAL INCENTIVES. Annual incentives are provided in the form of cash bonuses to be paid if certain performance objectives are achieved. The Compensation Committee may in the future award cash bonuses based primarily upon the Company's level of Funds from Operations. Cash bonuses will also be subject to adjustment based upon the Compensation Committee's evaluation of an executive's personal performance. Mr. Nettina's employment and noncompetition agreement provides for a minimum annual cash bonus (commencing on the first anniversary of the date of the agreement) of $100,000.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVES. Long-term incentives are provided through the grant of stock options. The grant of stock options are intended to align the executive's long-term objectives with those of the Company's stockholders. The Amended 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee, which has the discretion to determine those individuals to whom options will be granted, the number of shares subject to options and other terms and conditions of the options. In the year 2000, as a long-term incentive award, Marc Holliday received 40,000 stock options and Gerald Nocera received 30,000 options.

2000 CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, the Compensation Committee awarded to Stephen L. Green 300,000 stock options and a $325,000 cash bonus. These awards were determined by the Compensation Committee substantially in accordance with the policies described above relating to all Named Executive Officers of the Company. In making such determinations, the Compensation Committee noted several factors, including the Company's achievement of a 17% increase in Funds from Operations per share in 2000 over levels achieved in 1999.

TAX DEDUCTIBILITY OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION. Section 162 (m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits the deductibility on the Company's tax return of compensation over $1 million to any of the Named Executive Officers of the Company unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan which is performance-related, non-discretionary and has been approved by the Company's stockholders. The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to Section 162 (m) is to make every reasonable effort to ensure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted while simultaneously providing Company executives with appropriate compensation for their performance. The Company did not pay any compensation during 2000 that would be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 162(m).

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

ORGANIZATION

There shall be a committee of the board of directors to be known as the audit committee. The audit committee shall be composed of directors who are independent of the management of the corporation and are free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the board of directors, would interfere with their exercise of independent judgment as a committee member.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

The audit committee shall provide assistance to the corporate directors in fulfilling their responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, and investment community relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the corporation, and the quality and integrity of the financial reports of the corporation. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the audit committee to maintain free and open means of communication between the directors, the independent auditors, and the financial management of the corporation.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In carrying out its responsibilities, the audit committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and to ensure to the directors and shareholders that the corporate accounting and reporting practices of the corporation are in accordance with all requirements and are of the highest quality.

In carrying out these responsibilities, the audit committee will:

- Review and recommend to the directors the independent auditors to be selected to audit the financial statements of the corporation and its subsidiaries.
- Meet with the independent auditors and financial management of the corporation to review the scope of the proposed audit for the current year and the audit procedures to be utilized, and at the conclusion thereof review such audit, including any comments or recommendations of the independent auditors.
- Review with the independent auditors and financial and accounting personnel, the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls of the corporation, and elicit any recommendations for the improvement of such internal control procedures or particular areas where new or more detailed controls or procedures are desirable. Particular emphasis should be given to the adequacy of such internal controls to expose any payments, transactions, or procedures that might be deemed illegal or otherwise improper. Further, the committee periodically should review company policy statements to determine their adherence to the code of conduct.
- Review the internal audit function with financial management of the corporation including the independence and authority of its reporting obligations, the proposed audit plans for the coming year, and the coordination of such plans with the independent auditors.
- Review with internal and external counsel, where appropriate, any legal matters that could have a significant impact on the corporation's financial statements.
- Review the financial statements contained in the annual report to shareholders with management and the independent auditors to determine that the independent auditors are satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the shareholders. Any changes in accounting principles should be reviewed.

- Provide sufficient opportunity for the financial management and independent auditors to meet with the members of the audit committee without other members of management present. Among the items to be discussed in these meetings are the independent auditors' evaluation of the corporation's financial, accounting, and auditing personnel, and the cooperation that the independent auditors received during the course of the audit.
- Review accounting and financial human resources and succession planning within the company.
- Submit the minutes of all meetings of the audit committee to, or discuss the matters discussed at each committee meeting with, the board of directors.
