

SL Green Realty Corp. Pledges $1 Million to Help Victims and Families of World Trade Center Disaster

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sept. 18, 2001--SL Green Realty Corp. (NYSE: SLG - news) announced today that it has donated $1 million to assist the victims and families of the World Trade Center tragedy. The contribution will go to the Twin Towers Fund.

Stephen L. Green, chairman and chief executive officer of SL Green Realty Corp. said, "The employees of SL Green Realty Corp. are devastated by the shocking acts of terrorism launched against the United States last week. As New Yorkers, we watched in horror the destruction of the magnificent World Trade Center and the tragic loss of so many of our fellow New Yorkers, Americans and others from around the world. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of the families who have lost or are missing loved ones."

"On behalf of the employees of SL Green Realty Corp., I would like to make this donation of $1 million to the Twin Towers Fund. We feel it is our responsibility to directly help the families of New York City Police, Fire and Emergency Workers lost during the heroic rescue effort at the World Trade Center."

SL Green Realty is also encouraging their employees to assist on a personal level in whatever way they can, through donating blood or by making individual financial contributions to relief agencies. In addition, the company will match all individual financial contributions made by SL Green employees.

SL Green Realty Corp. is a self-administered and self-managed real estate investment trust ("REIT") that primarily owns, manages, leases, acquires and repositions office properties in Manhattan.
